Physician; Permanent Full-Time
(35 hours/week; 1 FTE position)
Posting No. 2024-10

Are you a dedicated family physician looking to make a meaningful impact in the community while maintaining a flexible work-life balance? Join us in our mission to serve and uplift marginalized individuals and families through our diverse programs and services.

Davenport-Perth Neighbourhood and Community Health Centre (DPNCHC) provides programs and services to diverse participants who are marginalized due to socioeconomic barriers.

As a multi-service community agency, we prioritize community development and health promotion. Our Health Centre is a dynamic and complex practice where a multidisciplinary team of nurses, nurse practitioners, a dietitian, and a physiotherapist collaborate to deliver holistic care. We are currently expanding our services and seeking an enthusiastic family physician to help build a new practice, focusing on deepening our engagement with Black-identified community members and youth.

We offer flexibility in scheduling, allowing you to balance your professional commitments with other priorities. This is a unique opportunity to work in a supportive, patient-focused environment where you can truly give back to the community.

Qualifications:

- Current registration and in good standing with the College of Physicians of Ontario
- CCFP certification preferred
- Membership with any of the following organizations is an asset:
 - Black Healthcare Professionals Network
 - Black Health Alliance
 - Black Physicians Association of Ontario
 - Black Physicians of Canada
- Excellent clinical and interpersonal skills
- Experience working in a community-based organization with diverse cultures
- Strong commitment to community-based health-care delivery
- Sensitivity and understanding when working with high-need populations
- Ability to work collaboratively as part of an interdisciplinary health care team
- Ability to speak a second language is an asset
- Some evening hours will be required

If you're passionate about providing care where it's needed most and want to be part of a growing, supportive team, we encourage you to apply. Join us in making a difference!

Start date: ASAP.
